

I am begging you to not let big bussiness weaken our law in Indiana.
I believe it is my right to privacey. I don't think they should have the right to call and bother us at home with adds for bussiness we are very capable of seeking them out if we require their services. So, please do not change our law which protects our right to privacey.